The authors regret in the Future Considerations Section the following line should read:

“However, as only four (Cejudo et al., 2019; Martins et al., 2018; Tessaro et al., 2017; Tomar & Allen, 2019) of the studies included in this systematic review were published after the introduction of the most recent FINA (Mountjoy et al., 2016) and IOC (Schwellnus et al., 2016; Soligard et al., 2016) Consensus Guidelines covering load and the risk of injury and illness, their overall influence was diminished”.

The authors would like to apologise for any inconvenience caused.
